Weekly Words from The Rock

Question for the Week This week our exercise is under the category of matching. Below, I have categorized different members of the Catholic Church. On the right, I have provided a description of each of the members of the Catholic Church.

What your exercise entails is matching the appropriate description with member. Please remember your work is to match. Good luck and look for the answers next week.

- ___Pope
 - ___Cardinal
 - ___Archbishop
 - ___Bishop
 - ___Monsignor
 - ___Priest
 - ___Deacon
 - ___Religious
 - ___Laity
- A. Baptized Catholics who are not members of the clergy. Bring the presence of Christ to their life in the world and attain holiness by fulfilling their own particular vocation in the world.
 - B. An ordained member of the clergy, ranked under bishops and priests. He can either be transitional or permanent.
 - C. Someone who belongs to a religious institute or order. They take a vow of poverty, chastity, and obedience in order to follow Christ more faithfully.
 - D. Honorary title given to a diocesan priest in recognition of his contributions to the life of the Church.
 - E. Recognized leader of the Catholic Church. He is known as the Bishop of Rome and is looked upon as Peter's successor. Holds his position until his death.
 - F. Heads an important Church post or heads a diocese ranked an archdiocese because of its significance in Catholic history or popularity. Retirement age of 75.
 - G. The chief pastor and head of a specific diocese. He has charge of all matters of Church life within the designated boundaries of the diocese. Retirement age of 75.
 - H. Attached to a specific diocese, he is under the authority of the local bishop. Co-workers with the bishop in the mission of teaching, sanctifying, and leading God's people.
 - I. An important honorary rank bestowed upon members of the clergy by the pope. Until he reaches the age of 80, this person is allowed to vote in the election of a new pope.

Biblical Terminology We continue our work of defining words and names from the pages of the Bible. My source for this is Harper's Bible Dictionary, Harper & Row Publishers, Copyright 1985.

Abomination – usually something contrary to proper religion. The Hebrew term recurring in Leviticus 11 designates “unclean” creatures that are not to be eaten. Two other Hebrew terms closely aligned typically refer to foreign gods, their images, or related worship practices as detestable. They also denote improper ways of worshipping God and wicked or unlawful conduct.

Abraham – a Hebrew patriarch and an important figure in three living religions: Judaism, Christianity and Islam. Earlier known as Abram, he is perceived as the patriarch of several peoples from the regions of Palestine.

He is called “the father of many nations” (Genesis 17:5) and the friends of God (2 Chronicles 20:7).

Abraham's bosom – a metaphor in Jesus' parable about the rich man and Lazarus (Luke 16:19-31). To be in someone's bosom means to recline to the right of the host (the place of honor) at a meal. Christians later used this metaphor as another designation for Paradise.

Holy Humor

The Pope goes to New York. He is picked up at the airport by a limousine. He looks at the beautiful car and says to the driver,

"You know, I hardly ever get to drive. Would you please let me?" The driver is understandably hesitant and says, "I'm sorry, but I don't think I'm supposed to do that."

But the Pope persists, "Please?" The driver finally lets up.

"Oh, all right, I can't really say no to the Pope." So the Pope takes the wheel, and boy, is he a speed demon! He hits the gas and goes around 100 mph in a 45 zone. A policeman notices and pulls him over.

The cop walks up and asks the Pope to roll down the window. Startled and surprised, the young officer asks the Pope to wait a minute. He goes back to his patrol car and radios the chief.

Cop: Chief, I have a problem. Chief: What sort of problem?

Cop: Well, you see, I pulled over this guy for driving way over the speed limit but it's someone really important.

Chief: Important like the mayor?

Cop: No, no, much more important than that.

Chief: Important like the governor?

Cop: Wayyyyyy more important than that.

Chief: Like the president?

Cop: More.

Chief: Who's more important than the president?

Cop: I don't know, but he's got the Pope driving for him!

God's blessings! Father Schuster

Leadership Ministry nominations

Last weekend we began the process of building our Leadership Ministry teams. The first and most important step requires your participation. Please take a moment to nominate a parishioner or parishioners who you feel demonstrate qualities that would be helpful in advising the pastor as he guides his people and Resurrection in meaningful ways. This person might even be you. There will be slips of paper and pens available in the gathering space through Sunday, July 23. Place the name of the person you would like to nominate on the slip of paper and drop in the box provided. If possible, contact the person that you have nominated and let them know why you think they would be a good leader for our parish. On Wednesday, July 26 those nominated will receive a letter of invitation to the Leadership Discernment Meeting on Wednesday, August 9, from 6-8 pm. If you have any questions about the process or specifically about the role of the councils or committees don't hesitate to ask me. You may contact me cherylk@rescathroch.org, call 288-5528, ext. 103, or stop by my office located between the sacristy and the bathrooms.

Enjoy God's Embrace

Thank you to Nancy O'Neill and the Garden Committee for our beautiful gardens throughout the seasons at Resurrection. We receive so many compliments about our beautiful grounds.

We are in need of a Chairperson for our Garden Committee. Nancy will be retiring soon from her position and will be available to work with the new chairperson. If you know of someone or if you have an interest, give the office a call 507-288-5528 or contact Nancy at noneill1124@gmail.com.

Weddings and Customs – Part II

During the seasons of summer and fall, we have many weddings at the Church of the Resurrection. It is my honor to meet with couples who are preparing for the Celebration of Matrimony to talk about the readings, the rites and the music.

Last week, I introduced four customs that are popular at weddings: the lighting of a unity candle, presenting flowers to a statue of Mary, the blessing and giving of arras and the blessing and placing of the lazo. While lighting a unity candle and presenting flowers to a statue of Mary are not official rites of the Church – we do allow for them at weddings. The blessing and giving of arras and the placing of the lazo are official rites of the Church.

The Blessing and Giving of Arras

Arras are thirteen coins poured from one spouse’s hands to the others. The custom comes from the Hispanic tradition and is an optional rite during the celebration of Matrimony. During the rite, the priest blesses the coins and then hands them to the husband who pours them into the hands of his wife saying: Receive these arras as a pledge of God’s blessing and a sign of the good gifts we will share. The wife then takes the arras and pours them into her husband’s hands saying the same words. Originally, the coins went in only one direction – from groom to bride - indicating his financial responsibility to her. In the United States, the bride gives them back to her husband as a sign that both share responsibility for the family, pledging their mutual support. Thirteen coins are a kind of “baker’s dozen” that signify abundance. God has been good to the bride and groom and they pledge to put their blessings to use for the good of each other and their family.

Placing of the Lazo

A lazo is a double rosary placed over the shoulders of the bride and groom. It is first blessed by the priest or deacon as a symbol of unity and commitment and then placed over the shoulders of the couple, usually with the help of family members or friends. The ritual occurs in the celebration of Matrimony after the Eucharistic Prayer and before the Lord’s Prayer which leads into Nuptial Blessing. In this way, the couple receives the nuptial blessing while wearing the lazo. It is removed after the blessing. The continuous double loop of the lazo implies the eternal nature of the couple’s commitment, and the nature of the lazo – a double rosary – suggests that their commitment will be strengthened not only by God but also by their devotion to Mary and to prayer. This custom also comes from the Hispanic tradition and is an optional rite during the celebration of Matrimony.

Psalm Refrain for July 23 – 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Psalm 86:5)

Lord, you are good and forgiving.

Faith Formation for Grades 1-5 and Families

We are in full summer mode now, enjoying all the fun in the sun, vacations and family reunions. This week I am vacationing with my family at our annual lake resort trip. I treasure the long, sunny, warm days on the water and the cooler, quieter nights around the bonfire. When we return, our newspapers will be full of "Back-to-School" ads. It seems a little premature to be running out to buy folders and glue sticks when I only brought out my summer clothes on July 1st. I'll try to resist the temptation to run to the stores, but I am one of those people that is energized by organization, matching binders, and new markers.

This is when I start to hear the calling of a new school year and making plans for fall by writing lessons, creating new learning centers, and accepting new challenges. From now until September, I'll be adapting, revising, and adjusting last year's curriculum to meet the ever changing needs of our parish children and families. Now is the time for us to evaluate and question. Think of it as New Year's resolutions in July.

What is your mission? What does God want you to do? Where are you going?
How are you getting there? Who can you help? Are you on the right path?

Some attentive families continuously set goals and evaluate, while most of us tend to procrastinate. Some of us plan, plan, plan, and never get to the do, do, do of our mission. Some people like to live in the moment while others look to the future. Similar to how we plan for our vacations and free time, God desires our attention. Our children need strong motivation and clear purpose in order to know and grow their faith. We must constantly strive to become God's witnesses in our world and saints in His Kingdom. With these objectives in mind, our plans for the 2017-18 faith formation year are in the planning phases. Please contact me if you have ideas that we could incorporate into the 1st - 5th grade plan or the many family activities.

Enjoy the rest of summer and I hope to see you at "Story in the Park" for families on July 24th (Little Flower Day) and July 31st (Wolves & Beasts Day) at 6:30-7:30pm. We meet in Fr. Zenk Hall. Remember to bring a beach towel or blanket to sit on. If the weather is too hot or too wet, we will stay cool and dry in Room C.
